SCHOOL SPIRIT!

Dr. Onye Nnorom

Dr. Onye Nnorom, is a native Montreal and a doctor. She graduated from McGill med. She served as the Black Health Theme Lead for the University of Toronto Faculty of Medicine. She helped develop educational content for teaching medical students about Black Canadian health, and inequities due to systemic racism.

Dr. Nnorom is the co-founder of the Black Health Education Collaborative, which was established to provide online educational resources on anti-Black racism and Black health for health professional students, clinicians and public health practitioners.

She is also the host of the podcast Race, Health and Happiness, and past president of the Black Physicians' Association of Ontario.
