

P.C.H.S. DAILY NEWS

THURSDAY, MAR 18, 2010 DAY 9

Senior students – ever wondered what it's like working for the Armed Forces? Do you know about education opportunities there too? The Canadian Armed Forces will have an info kiosk in our caf on Thursday April 1st to tell you about what you can do with them. Plan to check it out.

Volunteer opportunity for grade 9, 10, 11 students. The Lakeshore General Hospital is looking for students who might be interested in a career in medicine to volunteer pastoral services one Saturday per month from 12:30-3:00pm. It would consist of meeting and talking with patients, offering them prayers, accompanying them to mass and returning them to their rooms. People of any faith are welcome. For more information please see Mrs. Aldred.

Come out and support our PC Idols of 2010: Tickets are on sale at both junior and senior lunch starting March 17th. Tickets are $5 per night or a package for all three nights at a cost of $12.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN DRAWING? March 18-26th there will be an art contest, all submissions must be drawings (hand art only). Art must be handed in to reception in the art box. If you win, you will be notified on March 30th and will win a prize!

Subway Combo Sale: On Wednesday March 24th subway combos will be sold during both senior and junior lunches at the PC Corner Store ($5.00 for a sandwich drink and a cookie).

Congratulations to the Bantam and Juvy Boys Indoor Soccer Team on their victories over Howard S. Billings. Good Job Trojans!
